- 27. Attorney's Report

Mr. Schweinle updated the Board on the latest developments with the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) claim and Mr. Barron. Since the TWC has filed a lien against CLCWA, it is interfering with utility service payments from state agencies, specifically the University of Houston at this time. The private investigator CLCWA hired, Wayne Dolcefino, concurred with the fraud suspicion and has uncovered further details supporting it. The Board agreed to authorize Bill Schweinle, Wayne Dolcefino, and CLCWA Staff to contact the highest level possible at the TWC office in Austin to try and resolve this diplomatically before further action is considered.

29. General Manager's
Report

Mr. James Byrd reported that zinc is higher than the discharge limit at the wastewater plant. From samples at all lift stations, a Water Effect Ratio (WER) study will need to be done. Drinking water limits are at higher allowable limits also. He spoke to the TCEQ and is expecting to hear back from them with answers to several questions. The TCEQ advised there may be a fine issued.

Mr. Byrd reported that the house on the corner of Brookford & Brookgreen (Middlebrook) is on the edge of CLCWA's easement and the water line is within the easement.

30. Old and New Business

None.
